

Proclamation
Presented to
Maryknoll School

WHEREAS, Maryknoll School was established in 1927 by the Maryknoll Sisters to provide a quality education in the tradition of the Catholic Church for the young men and women of Honolulu; and

WHEREAS, Maryknoll School created the Monsignor Charles A. Kekumano Award to recognize those in the community who exemplify the legacy of the Monsignor and the spirit of Noblesse Oblige, "to whom much is given, much is expected"; and

WHEREAS, Maryknoll School is honoring Larry Rodriguez with the Monsignor Charles A. Kekumano Award for going above and beyond and setting a shining example for others in his lifelong service to the community through numerous nonprofit organizations and causes in the State of Hawai'i; and

WHEREAS, Maryknoll School annually awards the Monsignor Charles A. Kekumano Scholarship to an exceptional Maryknoll student entering his or her senior year of high school who demonstrates academic excellence, service to the community, and leadership; and

WHEREAS, Maryknoll School has awarded this year's Monsignor Charles A. Kekumano Scholarship to student Katelyn Domdoma for her achievements inside and outside the classroom and her outstanding potential;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor for the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim May 5, 2013, as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in celebrating and honoring the spirit of community service and compassion for others that the Monsignor embodied and that Maryknoll School continues to perpetuate.

"MARYKNOLL SCHOOL
MONSIGNOR CHARLES A. KEKUMANO DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twenty-six day of April, 2013.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
